

Sister School in Singapore

Mark: The students from Singapore are coming soon.

進行形が使われているのはなぜ?

What do you know about Singapore?

Hana: Well, it's an island country like Japan, right?

島国

()のような

Mark: Right. In fact, Singapore has about 60 islands.

実は、

Hana: sixty? How big is Singapore?

どのくらいの大きさですか

Mark: It's smaller than Tokyo.

~er than () = ()より(大) ~た

比較級

It's the smallest country in Southeast Asia.

the ~est = もっとも ~た

最上級

東南アジア

Lesson 6 Part 1 Scene 2

Sister School in Singapore

Singapore is a small country in Southeast Asia.

東南アジア

It's smaller than Tokyo.

比較級 ~er than () = () よりも だ

However, Singapore has one of the busiest ports in the world.

しかしながら

one of (最上級) な (もの・人など)
いざい ~ な ★ 複数

港

Many ships carry goods to and from the port all day long.

船々

品物

行ったり来たり

1日中

People from various countries live in Singapore.

様々な

There are four official languages: Malay, English, Chinese and Tamil.

there (be) ~ = 「~ かい」

公用語

集合名詞

There are also many different kinds of food such as Chinese chicken rice,

~ も (また)

いろいろな種類の食べ物

~ のような

Malaysian noodles, and Indian curry.

You can eat all of (them) in the same food court.

() のすべて

同じ the same